

Customer Relationship Summary Introduction

Trajan Wealth, LLC is an investment adviser registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”). Brokerage and investment advisory services and fees differ and it is important for you to understand the differences. Free and simple tools are available to research firms and financial professionals at Investor.gov/CRS, which also provides educational materials about broker-dealers, investment advisers, and investing.

Relationships and Services

What investment services and advice can you provide me?

We offer investment advisory services to retail investors, including the below:

- We will offer you investment advice on a regular basis. We will discuss your investment goals, design with you a strategy to achieve your investment goals, and regularly monitor your account. We will contact you (by phone or e-mail) at least annually to discuss your portfolio.
- You can choose an account that allows us to buy and sell investments in your account without asking you in advance (a “discretionary account”), or you may make the decision on what investments to buy and sell (a “non-discretionary account”).
- We are held to a fiduciary standard that covers our entire investment advisory relationship with you. For example, we are required to monitor your portfolio, investment strategy, and investments on an ongoing basis.

For additional information, please see our Form ADV, Part 2A brochure, specifically Items 4 and 7.

Conversation Starters: Ask us the following questions –

- ✓ Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Why or why not?
- ✓ How will you choose investments to recommend to me?
- ✓ What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education and other qualifications? What do these qualifications mean?

Fees, Costs, Conflicts, and Standard of Conduct

What fees will I pay?

- If you open an advisory account, you will pay an on-going asset-based fee billed at the end of each month or quarter for our services, based on the value of the cash and investments in your advisory account.
- Since our fee is percentage based, the more assets you have in the advisory account, including cash, the more you will pay us. The more you make, the more we make – We therefore have an incentive to increase the assets in your account. You pay our fee monthly or quarterly even if you do not buy or sell.
- Other fees you may pay include, but are not limited to, custodial fee, bank fee and or broker dealer fee.
- Some investments (such as mutual funds and exchange traded funds (ETF’s)) impose additional fees that may reduce the value of your investment over time. Also, with certain investments such as mutual funds, you may have to pay fees such as “surrender charges” to sell the investment.
- You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying. For more information, please see Form ADV, Part 2A brochure, Item 5.

Conversation Starters: Ask us the following questions –

- ✓ Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?

What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser?
How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

- When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide you. Here are some examples to help you understand what this means.
- We can make extra money by advising you to purchase Insurance Products, because (a) they are issued, sponsored or managed by us or our affiliates, (b) third parties compensate us when we recommend or sell the insurance, or (c) both. Your financial professional also receives compensation if you buy these insurance products. This is considered outside business activity.
- Trajan Wealth may be selected and or hired to manage certain registered investment products and will receive compensation (Management Fee) which will be taken from the product along with additional expenses required to operate the product(s). These additional expenses could include but are not limited to: Management fees, Administration, Fund Accounting, Transfer Agent fees, Legal & Audit. Due to the financial incentives that could be presented by such compensation, there could exist a conflict of interest (a “Conflict”), particularly where Trajan Wealth collects compensation for management of Client’s investment portfolio containing certain investment products while at the same collecting compensation as a Third-Party Manager for some such investment products that are among those in such Client’s investment portfolio

For additional information, please see our Form ADV, Part 2A brochure, specifically Items 4 and 7.
